clearance. I told Mr. Andrews that on the facts given we were almost certain we were not involved in any one of these and in all probability the Bureau and Defense security systems would have the information on these cases. He thanked me and said that was all he wanted to know.

2. [redacted] Talked with [redacted] Desk, concerning [redacted]

[redacted] and appeared as a witness before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. [redacted] wished to explore the possibilities of a private bill waiving the 10-year prohibition of the Immigration and Nationality Act applicable to former Communist Party members. [redacted] was advised that similar private legislation has recently been passed for other defectors and therefore there are precedents for such legislation. However, there is a question as to whether there is sufficient time for such a bill to be passed by both Houses prior to the termination of the present session. He was advised that we were willing to assist in this matter if such a proposal was considered desirable by the DD/P. [redacted] is to discuss this matter further within the DD/P and be in touch with us.

3. [redacted] Kenneth Belieu, Staff Director of Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee and Senate Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee, called to say that Senator Lyndon Johnson has received letters from an individual who wishes to come to Washington and bring with him an anonymous friend who is interested in discussing conditions in Korea. Belieu has requested an Agency briefing on the Korean
